Baby Drowned In Kentucky Boat Accident

Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, Jr., 30 1/2 Race street, Springfield, who was drowned Sunday night near Owensville, Ky., were conducted at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday in the McMillan funeral home, Cedarville.

The infant, Harry David Miller, was born last April 2, was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. The accident took place about midnight in the Licking River, and the body was recovered about eight hours later. The family had been visiting friends near Owensville.

Services were conducted by Rev. Elwood Palmer, pastor of the Cedarville Church of God. Burial was in Clifton cemetery. Surviving the infant, besides the parents, are the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Miller of Cedarville, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pack of Ulysses, Ky.

Coroner E. L. Warner of Owensville said the small boat in which the party was fishing apparently was overloaded and overturned in the river. He returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

A series of night games, starting with a twin bill Thursday at Municipal Stadium in Springfield was inaugurated by the NABF league after Hankel's and Reco each posted victories to remain tied with four wins and one defeat each.

In the opener Thursday, which started at 6:30 p. m., Cedarville tangled with Reco, while Crowell-Collier battled South Vienna in the second contest.

Other after dark doubleheaders probably will be played on June 9, 14, 16, and 30 and July 12, 14, 19, and 20.

On Mondays battles, Hankel's defeated South Vienna, 4-1, at South Vienna, and Reco overpowered Crowell's, 2-1, at Municipal Stadium. Ridenour best Cedarville, 3-0, at Cedarville; Springfield Merchants edged Lawrenceville, 9-8, at Lawrenceville, and Omar Bakery outpointed Harmony, 9-8 at Municipal Stadium.

Night Games Carded in Ball League at Stadium

Officers for next year were elected by the Chi Mu Delta Fraternity at a meeting held at the Co-Op on Tuesday evening, May 24.

Larry Brooks, president; Kenney Huffman, vice president; Bob Hildreth, secretary; John Townsley, treasurer; and Dave King, watchdog.

The residents of Harriman Hall, in bringing to a close a year of gay times, enjoyed a picnic at Bryan Park Wednesday evening. Although it was bound to rain, a good time was reported by all. Volley ball and singing around the fire were the main features of the evening. The menu consisted of hot dogs, potato salad, baked beans, pickles, marshmallows, potato chips, home-made ice cream, and cake.

At Cedarville College

Only two students, Myers Bost and Bill Osman, attended convocation program through-out the entire year. Two others, Lee Price and Anne Elsey, had perfect attendance until withdrawal midway in the second semester.

Others witnessing every convocation program the second semester were Emory Belreis, Jack Bellville, Naomi Comer, Dorothy Davis, Bill Dunlap, Jim Dunn, Rosemary Elam, Nellie Emshwiler, Raymond Glenn, Bill Hammond, Bob Hildreth, Carl Jones, Park King, Harmon Lum, Ila McLaughlin, Don Nock, Tom Osborne, Geraldine Powell, Edie Rutan, Joanne Sanderson, and Eleanor Weismiller. Two others had perfect attendance except for two college-sponsored trips. Don Barger played basketball in Kansas City, and Dick Brown was a member of a student-observation tour.

The decrease in the number of required programs, as well as the improvement in the caliber of the programs, seems to be responsible for the long list of perfect attendees. Probably the best of all the programs, from everyone's standpoint, was the senior convocation. Particularly enjoyed were the impersonations of male faculty members by members of the class.

The busiest of the Big Three next year will no doubt be the newly-elected editor of the Whispering Cedars, Kenneth Huffman, of Cedarville. Kenneth has been an important member of the present staff. He has plenty of hard work cut out for him next year, with ten issues a possibility for each semester. Every two weeks he will be preparing an entirely new paper.

To handle the business end of the Whispering Cedars, Gerald Bradford was elected business manager. The financing of the paper through student fees, advertising, and subscriptions will form the major portion of his duties, but he will also have responsibility for circulation.

Both these men will select their own assistants to form a staff which will attempt to publish the best little college newspaper in the country. Each college organization, in the election of its officers next fall, will elect or designate a reporter. This reporter can be of great assistance to the staff of the college newspaper by submitting prompt accounts of all events in that organization, and announcements of coming activities.

William Osman, of Paso Robles, California, became one of the big three on the campus with his election last Wednesday to the editorship of the 1950 Cedars. For the past two years student interest in the yearbook has not been high enough to complete the book without outside help. Along with Osman, the students selected a capable staff which will form the nucleus of an all-student project in 1950. For business manager Ray Thompson was elected. Mary Stormont was elected features editor. Emmonson will hold down the post of adver-

RICH'S JEWELRY

Diamonds — Watches — Silver Ware

Of all the gifts, whatever the occasion, the most appreciated and long-lasting is the gift of jewelry. It is, however, a merchandise which must be purchased with utmost confidence in the firm it represents.

Xenia and vicinity is fortunate in having Rich's Jewelry in Xenia, because here the buyer can be assured of the best value and fairest price. Carrying a complete line of diamonds, watches and jewelry of all kinds, names of value and fine quality.

To many prospective gift buyers, Rich's has a reputation built upon the gift of jewelry. Jewelry is mistakenly thought to be expensive. This is not true of this company. They have jewelry at all prices and place at the command of their customers lasting, beautiful gifts that will bring happiness for years to come.

Your writer suggests that when in Xenia you stop at Rich's Jewelry. Here you will find courteous, experienced salespeople who will be glad to advise you with your purchases.

XENIA AVIATION CO.

Train For Your Future

Aviation is a field that offers great opportunities to young men and women of today.

Young people interested in learning to fly should get in touch with D. C. Dawson, manager. His methods of instruction conform with every requirement both from legal standpoint and commercial flying requirements.

Training in this important field is now just as important as it ever was. Naturally the war has made us aviation conscious and we realize that aviation has advanced commercially more than it has ever before. The person with training in this line will be in a field where the greatest opportunities of our generation will be offered.

Good instructors, mechanics and fliers are always in demand, especially at the present time.

If you are interested in flying instructions get in touch with The Xenia Aviation Co. They are approved by the State for Veterans Flight Training. Remember them for charter trips anywhere in the U. S., also for airplane rentals and sales. At Port Xenia phone 1346-W2.

2-Way Radio Purchased for Sheriff Dept.

A two-way radio system for the sheriff's department, under consideration several weeks, neared reality Saturday when the county commissioners authorized purchase of equipment from the Belmont Radio Corp., Chicago, a subsidiary of Raytheon Manufacturing Corp.

Carl J. Schmidt, local representative for the Chicago firm, said the contract for the purchase of the system will be signed and delivery will be made in the next thirty or forty-five days. The purchase price was slightly less than $3,000.

The equipment will include three mobile units, one for each of the two cruisers in the department and the third for Sheriff George P. Henkel's auto. There will be one transmitter with two controls. One of the controls will be in the sheriff's office in the court house and the other at the county jail. The antenna will be erected in the court house tower.

The county radio will operate separately from the Xenia police division's radio system. It will have frequency of 39.53 megacycles, the frequency assigned to all sheriff's departments. It will be on a statewide chain net work, which, it was pointed out, would be of value in event of an emergency. By use of the system county officials will be in a position to contact the highway patrol through the Wilmington station by means of a point-to-point system.

Solon Youth Hurt Severely In Auto Crash

17-year-old South Solon youth suffered serious internal injuries and a possible broken back shortly before 8 p. m. Sunday when the auto he was driving went out of control and rolled over several times on Route 35 two miles west of Jamestown.

He was Raymond Riggsby, who was taken to Miami Valley hospital by sheriff's deputies. Samuel Demaster, 15, Cedarville, R. 2, a passenger in Riggsby's car, suffered minor cuts.

Deputies said Riggsby attempted to pass a car, but met another vehicle approaching in the opposite direction. When he attempted to get back into the right lane his brakes apparently locked, throwing the car out of control. It rolled over several times before coming to a stop. The vehicle was completely demolished, deputies said.

D. M. Aultman, Xenia's municipal judge, brought Harold M. Thompson, Jamestown pilot, down to earth Tuesday, fining him $25 and costs for "hedge-hopping" and "buzzing" the village of Jamestown.

State highway patrolmen, who made the usual arrest as routine, said Thompson was apprehended when he landed at Port Xenia. Patrolmen charged he was flying low, making tight turns and stalling out.

Xenia National Bank

SAFETY AND SERVICE

A prominent financial institution of this section that provides stability to the financial and commercial interests of the community is the Xenia National Bank.

It is under the direction of conservative yet progressive men who have guided this institution to substantial progress, evidenced by the large volume of business they enjoy.

An institution that has carefully guarded the best interests of the depositors by demanding the fullest security and adhering to the cardinal laws of finance. They are members of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

While this bank is seeking their own commercial success, those in charge always find time to lend a generous hand to the business men and farmers and therefore contribute greatly to the progress of this community.

The value and necessity of our local banks cannot be too emphatically stated as these institutions are not only responsible for the growth and expansion of the community at large but for prosperity of the individual business and enterprises as well.

In making this review we are proud to pay tribute to the Xenia National Bank, and to congratulate the officers and board for the policies pursued by them.

HUFF ELECTRIC

Industrial — Residential Wiring

One concern which deserves our hearty endorsement because of its progressive policies and general helpfulness toward the building of the community is the Huff Electric Co. This firm has taken an active interest in the building of Xenia. It is a recognized firm of reliable reputation and builders of Xenia have come to know Charles A. Huff, manager as the man, who perhaps knows his business better than any other contractor in Xenia. The business of electric work is one which requires years of experience, and the Huff Electric Co., has had that experience. They may be considered experts in their line, and yet their charges for jobs are no more than would be paid to a less efficient company.

Charles A. Huff is a man who the city of Xenia owes a great deal. He has assisted in many ways toward the development of the city and he may be considered one of the leaders in the building of this city. He is located at 111 N. Whiteman, phone 2124.

Joyce Xenia

CONTRIBUTES TO LOCAL PROSPERITY

A manufacturing firm is usually identified by the product which it manufactures, but in the final analysis of many industrial plants there are other forms of service which have no connection with the business but which help in the building of the community in which the plant is located.

The Joyce Xenia has furnished steady employment to many workers and these workers in turn have their homes in this community as well as contribute much of their earnings to the upbuilding of other business enterprises.

These and other features of service have identified Joyce Xenia, manufacturers of nationally known shoes. This organization justly deserves the position it holds in the business world. Through the incorporation of sound, honest, business principles, this company has been able to expand its business to its present proportions.

In this review of Friendly Business Relations for 1949 we cannot fail to compliment Joyce Xenia, and so say they have the good will of everyone of us.
